

2018-2019 SEASON

SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS

MUSIC | THEATRE | CINEMA

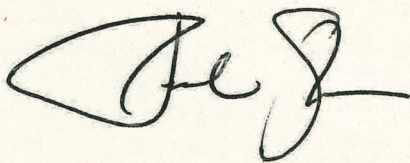

Welcome!

The School of Performing Arts is the heart of Virginia Tech's vibrant arts community. The School brings together faculty and students in who have chosen to grow as artists and arts scholars, and present their work on stage to share with audiences.

The School, composed of the Departments of Music and Theatre & Cinema, presents more than 250 public performances and events. It is our goal to inspire curiosity and generosity in the artistic exploration of what it means to be human. Our work, in the classroom and in practice, explores the individual in society, celebrates diversity of ideas and cultures, shapes individual character and a spirit of community - all the while catalyzing conversations about relevant issues in society. By exploring and narrating the human experience, we serve as a center for innovation and excellence in music, theatre, and cinema and at the intersections of these forms. We are proud to provide our students with invaluable opportunities to work with innovative artists and cutting-edge technologies.

On behalf of the staff, faculty, students, and our guest artists, I extend our sincere gratitude to each of you for acknowledging the vital importance of the arts on campus and your support of the artistic and intellectual development of the artists of tomorrow.

Cheers!

Profiles

ESCAPE TEN is a percussion duo formed by Dr. Annie Stevens (Assistant Professor, Virginia Tech) and Dr. Andrea Venet (Assistant Professor, University of North Florida). Their inaugural performance endeavor was a three-week cross-country tour in 2012 where they drove from Virginia to L.A., performing concerts coast-to-coast. Their name "Escape Ten" originates from their trademark road-trip style performance tours in a Ford Escape, with many miles travelled on the I-10. Ardent about exploring all genres and expressing these creatively through the world of percussion, much of their repertoire includes innovative arrangements and compositions commissioned or written exclusively by the duo. Most recently, they commissioned Russell Hartenberger of the world-renowned Nexus Percussion Ensemble to compose a percussion duo plus percussion quintet, dedicated to the five percussionists in Virginia Tech's 2019 graduating class, premiered on May 4, 2019 at Virginia Tech.

Escape Ten maintains a steady performance schedule touring as guest artists and clinicians internationally. Through collaboration with composer Eric Guinivan, they are the recipients of a marimba duo commission awarded from the prestigious Fromm Foundation, completed in 2018. In 2016, they performed a standing-room only Showcase Concert at the Percussive Arts Society International Convention, giving three world premières by Aurél Hollo, Joe Locke, and Michael Burritt. These works will be released on their second album, My Favorite Things. In addition to performances internationally, including the upcoming WASBE conference in Buñol, Spain, Escape Ten has been featured artists in Trinidad, the Barnes Foundation, Leigh Howard Stevens Summer Marimba Seminar, Heartland Marimba Festival, Rhea Miller Concert Series, Musica Viva Concert Series, McCormick Marimba Festival, Interlochen, the International Trombone Festival, VMEA, and the Virginia Humanities Conference. Their first album, Colours of a Groove, was released in 2014 and they have their own publication series through Keyboard Percussion Publications, The Escape X Series. Escape Ten proudly endorses Mallettech, DREAM Cymbals, and Remo.

JAY CRONE joined the Virginia Tech faculty in 1994 and is Principal Trombone of the Roanoke Symphony Orchestra, Opera Roanoke, the Wintergreen Festival Orchestra, and the Shenandoah Valley Bach Festival Orchestra. He has appeared as a soloist and chamber musician in the Europe, Asia, and South America, and has performed at many conferences and festivals, including the American Trombone Workshop and the Southeast Regional Horn and Tuba/Euphonium Workshops. He has also been a collaborative pianist in voice and instrumental recitals throughout the United States, including performances with members of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Florida Orchestra, among others. Crone holds degrees from the University of Southern California, Yale University, and California State University at Fresno.

About the Program

Today's performance marks our fifth annual Festival of Bands at Virginia Tech featuring the Highty-Tighties, the Blacksburg Community Band, Campus Band, Symphony Band, and Wind Ensemble. We are so happy you are joining us for this celebration of band music at Virginia Tech.

Today's concert is also a celebration of James Sochinski's retirement and legacy after forty-one years of service to Virginia Tech. Dr. Sochinski has contributed to the Virginia Tech Bands since 1977, as director of the Highty-Tighties, The Marching Virginians, Symphony Band, and Director of Bands. He has served as arranger for the Virginia Tech's 330-member "Marching Virginians" and has written for college and university bands throughout the country. Over fifty of his compositions and arrangements are published by Barnhouse, TRN, and Columbia Pictures.

We are pleased to present several of his compositions during today's performances as a testament to his impact as a composer, arranger, musician, and teacher. Thank you Dr. Sochinski for your many years of service to Virginia Tech and the Virginia Tech band program. You will be missed.
