Fall Concert Notes

Welcome to the Fall Concert of the Blacksburg Community Band, which, as in past years, is a joint concert with the Roanoke College Wind Ensemble. We welcome these fine young musicians from Roanoke College and their Music Director Dr. Joseph Blaha, who, after 16 years of service to the college, is retiring this year. Congratulations, Dr. Blaha!

Each year the band recognizes and supports an outstanding high school band musician with our Founder's Scholarship. General donations at the door today will support this award. This year's winner will be recognized at our spring concert.

Sadly, you may know that Steve Brown, our long-time member, Associate Conductor, and friend passed away August 31, 2017. There have been many tributes to Steve, from his colleagues at WVTF, the Roanoke Symphony, and his many friends. In our spring concert we will recognize Steve's many talents and contributions to the band. Designated donations in his memory will be accepted at the door today, at the spring concert, or can be mailed to the band at 1610 Boxwood Dr., Blacksburg VA 24060.

We also remember J. B. Jones, a long-time member of our saxophone section, who passed away May 17, 2107. An ensemble of band members were pleased to be able to play at his June 10th memorial service.

We have an exciting and varied program today, with music from the Harry Potter films and Halloween themes of witches and saints, as well as circus music, marches, and pensive Celtic tunes. Of special note is "Celebrating the Mighty Fortress," composed by Dr. Blaha in recognition of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation initiated by Martin Luther in 1517 and Luther's famous hymn "A Mighty Fortress is our God."

Thank you for joining us today to enjoy live music. We hope you will be with us for our Holiday Concert, December 10th and on April 8, 2018 for our Annual Spring Concert.
